Parent/Guardian Consent:

I realize that volleyball is a physically demanding activity. I understand that my child must act responsibly for themselves and toward other participants in the camp. I understand that participation in this volleyball camp involves certain inherent risks and that, regardless of the precautions taken some injuries may occur. The injuries include, but are not limited to: contusions, cramping, abrasions, sprains, strains, dislocations, fractures, head injuries, and neck injuries. These injuries may result from various hazards, such as failure to warm-up properly, hitting the floor incorrectly to make a play, jumping and landing on another player, running into a wall or the bleachers trying to play a ball or being hit in the head by a ball. The likelihood of such injuries may be lessened by adhering to the safety rules set by the coaches. In order to properly protect my own child's safety and that her fellow participants, I agree to instruct my child to immediately report any deviations from the safety rules as well as any observed hazardous conditions or equipment to the coaches. I further certify that my daughter's present level of physical condition is consistent with the demands of active participation in volleyball

Please list ALL of your daughter's health conditions that may affect her ability to fully participate in this volleyball camp: (use the back of this form if needed)
